

VVET 2 project

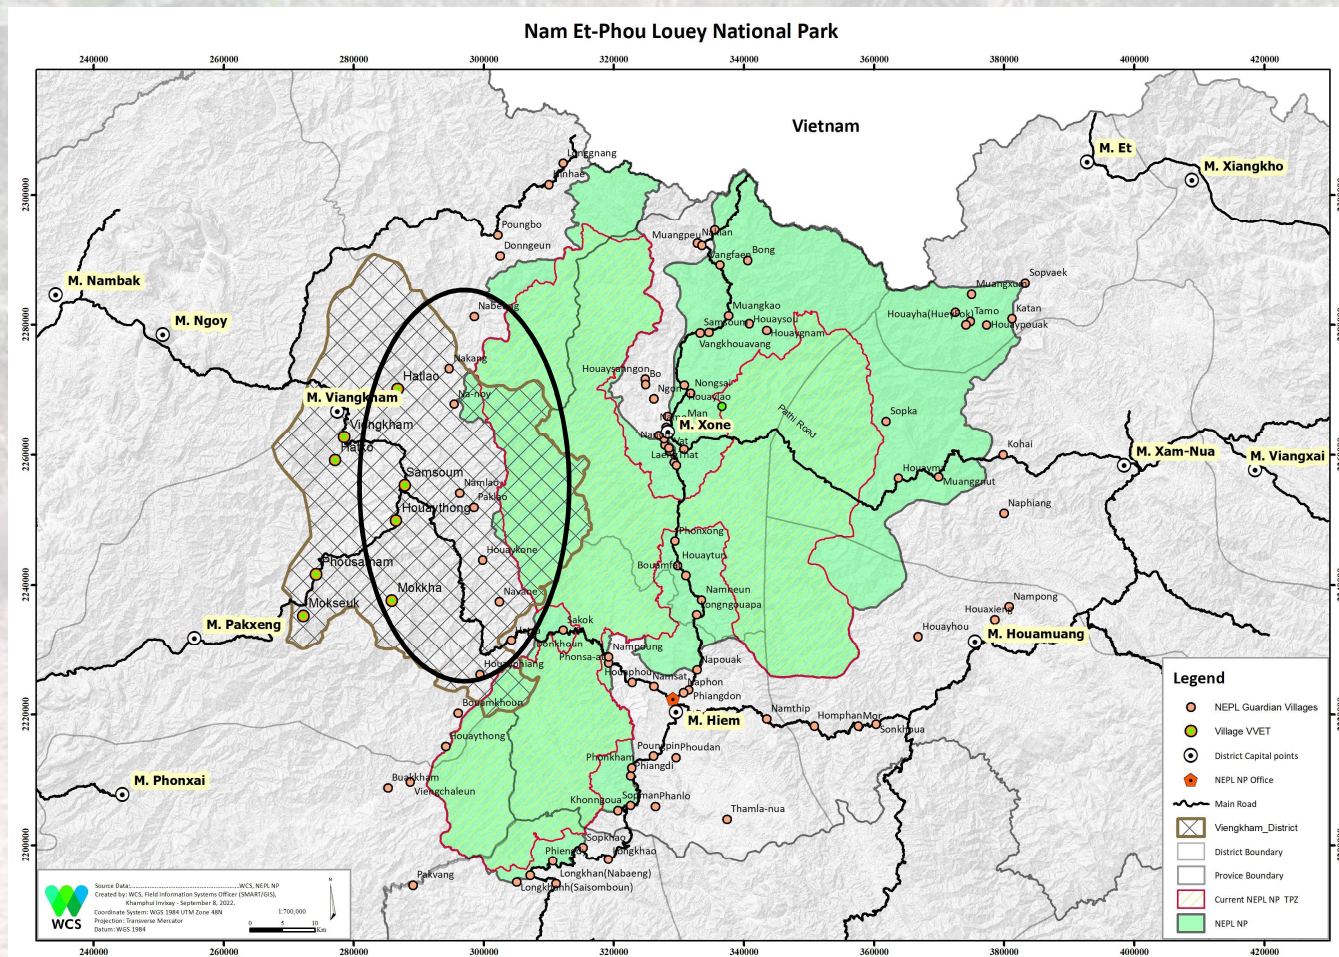

Lot 1

Better understanding of the distribution of wild pigs, their interaction with domestic pigs and the risk factors for disease spread at the domestic-wildlife interface

Lot 2

Training of Wildlife Ranger and village veterinary workers (VVWs) on ASF biosecurity and surveillance on farm, in wildlife and at the domestic-wildlife interface

Project area: Viengkham district, Luang Prabang province Interface of Nam Et-Phou national park

Lot 1- Study on wild pigs and domestic animals interactions and risk factors for spill-over event

1,1- Study background / literature review on wild and domestic pig interaction and ASF in wild pigs in Laos

1,2- Field study: quantification and risk factors for disease spillover

Focus groups discussion & workshop

Outbreaks investigation

Longitudinal survey (camera traps)

Final report

Lot 2 - Training of Wildlife Ranger and village veterinary workers (VVWs) on ASF

1- 7 training modules for DAFOs, rangers and village veterinary workers (VVWs)

- (1) One Health and biosecurity
- (2) Proper usage of PPE
- (3) Communication skills

RANGERS

- (4) Main pig diseases
- (5) Sick animals management
- (6) Carcasses disposal management
- (7) Biological sampling for diagnosis

DAFOS and VVWs

2- Improve the communication for disease surveillance and reporting between Village Veterinary Workers (VWV), rangers and DAFOs

3- Awareness raising campaigns of local communities (by VVWs and rangers)

F
I
N
A
L

R
E
P
O
R
T